Day 1: Inauguration and Awareness Programme for Scholarship

The Honourable Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Sumit Nandi, officiated on the occasion of the Inauguration of the Students' Week Programme as the Organizing Secretary for the Week. The Inauguration Programme quickly turned out to be momentous, with lamps being lit in the presence of the teachers, students, the Honourable Principal and the Honourable President of the Governing Body, Harishchandrapur College, Pipla, Malda.

The Honourable President of the Governing Body, Mr. Tajmul Hossain, Cabinet Minister of State for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises & Textile of the Government of West Bengal, was the Chief Patron for the occasion held by the College. Dr. Rubi Das Chakraborty, Head, Department of Philosophy and IQAC Coordinator, Harishchandrapur College, also proved pivotal in bringing the entire orchestration of the Students' Week to a happy fruition. The great inaugural ceremony was followed by an event to round up the first day of the Students' Week, namely an Event Awareness Programme for Scholarships, presided over by Mr. Jitmohan Saha, Head, Department of Bengali, Harishchandrapur College as the Event-in-Charge. The speakers whose memorable discussions marked the event included Mr. Jitmohan Saha and Mr. Nasim Parvege.

Day 2: Interaction with the guardians and free health check-up camp

The second day of the Students' Week celebrations held by Harishchandrapur College, Pipla, Malda, began with a meeting aimed to facilitate an interface between the teachers of the College and the parents and guardians of the students. This was held in order to furnish the parents with a platform to voice their requirements and concerns pertaining to the growth and progress of their wards. They were duly counselled by the teachers about strategies and modalities which may be implemented in order to brightly shape the minds of the future, all the while ensuring that the learning curve never becomes so steep as to be altogether insurmountable and thus daunting for the students.

The latter event of the day revolved around the organizing of a Free Health Check-up Camp for all the students. Since health and well-being remain one of the main concerns in the district, the Camp provided much-needed support and solace for the multitudes of students in the area, as their health issues were duly addressed by learned and experienced doctors and health professionals.

Day 3: Career Counselling Programme

The programme for the 4th of January, 2024 of the Students' Week celebrations incorporated a dynamic Career Counselling Programme which initiated a discourse between the students and Ms. Anita Chakraborty from the hallowed IIIT, West Bengal, Malda. The students were initiated into fresh realms of thought concerning the breadth of their career possibilities. The session, led by Mr. Arpan Sarki, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science proved to be decidedly enriching and a resounding success, turning out to be the focal event of the day.

Day 4: Quiz Competition Programme

The 5th of January, 2024 saw the hosting of a Quiz Competition Programme among the students. Mr. Rabbani Alam, Assistant Professor, Department of History was in charge of the aforementioned event. The questions went deep into areas and topics such as the Indian Freedom Struggle, the Constitution, Current Affairs, Indian Geography, Sports and General Knowledge. A total of 11 groups of students participated in the sprightly event, consisting of three pupils in each team. A total of 9 prizes were thus distributed for the first, second and third spots secured by the teams in the quiz competition programme.

Day 5: Awareness Programme for Student Credit Card

The 6th of January, 2024, consisted of an elaborate Awareness Programme for Student Credit Cards. This was considered a much needed move owing to insufficient awareness among certain groups of students about their credit card prerogatives. Under the watchful eye of Mr. Litan Biswas, Head, Department of History, the event met its goals to the contentment of all concerned.

Day 6: Online Seminar on Digital Education or Blend Mode of Education

On the 7th of January, 2024, the College went forth with an online seminar on Digital Education, also going on to examine the blended mode of education, its possibilities and imperatives. The speakers on this significant occasion included Dr. Rupa Bhattacharya, Assistant Professor and Joint Convener, R & D Cell, Narula Institute of Technology, Kolkata, and Ms. Nabani Barman, Assistant Professor, Government Teachers' Training College, Malda. Dr. Arnab Chatterjee, Assistant Professor, Department of English, formerly the Teacher-in-Charge, Harishchandrapur College, remained in charge of the proceedings, in close collaboration with the IQAC, Harishchandrapur College. The seminar proved immensely conducive to the furthering of the students' grasp on multifarious modalities and upgrades in the area of online education.

Day 7: Cultural Programme and Valedictory Session

The 8th of January marked the final day of the celebration for the Week. It was rounded up with a fabulous closing ceremony which included a Cultural Programme. The Honourable Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Sumit Nandi, addressed the students, reminding them of the vital importance of academic prowess and classroom cohesion as well as coordination. Folk songs and dances graced the stage to make the day hueful, and among other speakers, Mr. Litan Biswas offered a deeply motivating speech for the pupils. With Dr. Soumitra Mukhopadhyay, Assistant Professor, Department of Bengali and in charge, the memorable ceremony came to its mirthful conclusion as the Honourable Principal announced the vote of thanks for all present and extended his gratitude to everyone who made the entire Programme a phenomenal success.

Harishchandrapur College recognizes the profound impact of hosting such events, fostering a positive and enriching environment within the college. This not only engages the student community but also aligns seamlessly with the broader objectives of the State's education policy.
